Employee Spotlight

Mr. Wilcox is our Principal. He graduated from Troy high school, Mansfield University and the University of Scranton. He has worked for the district three years. He lives in Athens with his wife, Kristen and their three children, 3 dogs, 20 chickens and an occasional pig or cow. Mr. Wilcox enjoys spending time with his family, working on the family farm and hunting. The best thing about his job is his faculty, staff, students, and families that he gets to work with everyday.

Mrs. Curren is our Administrative Secretary. She graduated from Southside high school and Corning Community College. She lives in Gillett with her husband Todd. They have three children and four grandchildren. Mrs. Curren enjoys gardening, doing genealogy research and traveling. She has worked for the district for 24 years (8 years as a Teacher's Aide and 13 years as Secretary). She loves seeing the students everyday and helping our teachers with any needs for a great year.

Mrs. Shimko is our building secretary. She graduated from Troy high school and Mansfield University. She lives in Gillett with her husband, John. They have 6 children and seven grandchildren. She enjoys sewing, gardening, and spending time with her family. Mrs. Shimko has worked for the district for 23 years (20 as cafeteria manager and 3 as secretary). The best part of her job is helping her co-workers have the best day possible, getting to know the students and seeing their smiles.

Mrs. Martin is our school nurse. She graduated from Troy high school and Pennsylvania College of Technology. She lives in Granville Summit with her husband Dan. They have three "wonderful daughters", 1 sweet granddaughter, 1 dog and two cats. She has worked for the district for 23 years. Mrs. Martin enjoys sewing, crocheting, reading, cooking and baking. The best part of her job is being able to provide care and comfort to the kids when they are sick or hurt.
